

Student Exchange Support Program in 2014 between NUCE (National University of Civil Engineering, Hanoi) and SU (Saitama University)

Date: 2014/9/18-27

Venue: Hanoi, Vietnam

Participants (from Saitama University):

Faculty: Hiroshi Mutsuyoshi (Professor) and Shingo Asamoto (Associate Professor)

Students: Takaki Endo (M1), Shin Nakamura (M1) and Miharu Tsukahara (B4)

Schedule in Vietnam

-September 18, 2014:

Arrival at Hanoi International Airport

-September 19, 2014

+ Morning: Laboratory tour at NUCE

+ Afternoon: Presentation of current research work by Japanese students at NUCE

- "Development of High Performance Oil Cement Focusing on Bond with Steel Casing and Crack Resistance"

By Ms. Miharu TSUKAHARA

- "Development of Composite Girder Consisting of FRP and Ultra High Strength Fiber Reinforced Concrete"

By Mr. Takaki ENDO

- "Dynamic response behavior of RC structure under water"

By Mr. Shin NAKAMURA

-September 20-21, 2014

Student communication between NUCE and SU and study on Vietnamese culture

-September 22-26, 2014

Students: Internship at Vietnamese office of Japanese Expressway Company

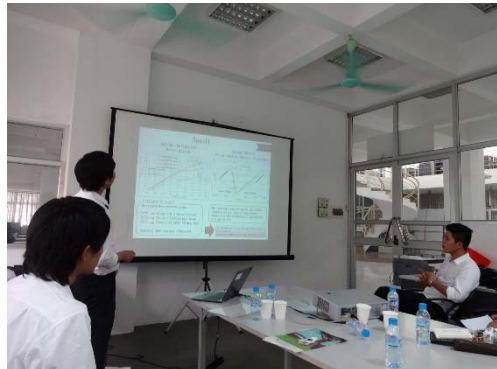

Faculties: Discussion of collaborative education of master course and lectures at NUCE

-September 27, 2014

Arrival at Narita international airport

<Photographs>

Laboratory tour and presentation at NUCE

Internship

Student communication in Vietnam

Meeting with rector of NUCE and lectures by SU faculty at NUCE

